The Winter Term will be offering four great music classes:

Thursdays at 5pm

The Guitar Circle - This is a fun, interactive, beginner group guitar class that focusses on practical approaches and great music.

Thursdays at 6:30pm

The Language of Instrumental Music (TLIM) - This is a group music class for adult beginners and amateur musicians who have both an interest in learning an instrument and the principles of music in general.

Fridays at 5pm

Decoding Notation - This is a class for the serious musician who struggles with interpreting notation and sight - reading. This class is available to both instrumentalists and singers.

Fridays at 6:30pm

Harmony and the Hook - This is a practical music theory class that focusses on the principle that great music is a combination of the surprising and the inevitable. If you are a serious musician who has hated music theory, but knows that it will be useful to you, this is the class for you.

This six-week course is available for the promotional price of $150 per subject.
